

What is claimed is:

1. A stable, handicapped accessible picnic table, comprising:
a generally flat horizontal table top having a longitudinal axis, an upper surface, a lower surface, first and second ends, and first and second sides;
5 first and second leg supports for supporting the lower surface of the table top;
each leg support having a ground engaging portion generally transverse to the longitudinal axis of the table top and a ground engaging portion generally parallel to the table top and terminating in an upright seat supporting surface;
a seat structure of about the same length as the table top mounted to the seat support 10 surfaces; and each of said first and second table top ends being open under its lower surface to allow wheelchair access to the ends of said table top.
2. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the first and second leg supports are bent to 15 avoid sharp right angle corners.
3. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the leg supports are of steel frame material.
4. The picnic table of claim 3 wherein the leg supports are steel tubing or pipe of 20 circular cross section.
5. The picnic table of claim 1 which has a first and second pair of similarly configured leg supports.
- 25 6. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the top and seats are dimensional wood planks.
7. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the top and seats are dimensional plastic planks.
8. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the top and seats are extruded aluminum 30 stadium planks.

9. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the top and seats are constructed of vinyl coated fabricated expended metal.

10. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the metal is perforated steel.

5

11. The picnic table of claim 1 wherein the ends of the table top and the ends of the seat structure dwell in the same vertical plane.